due to unexpected positive reaction from readers and fellow AFS members, we have decided to produce a sample work. For those asking who the red haired girl in our recruitment add is, her name is Kaede, and she is one of the main characters of this series untitled [illegible]. If you want to see more releases of this [illegible], please don't hesitate to leave us a comment/request on our forums at [illegible]

If we receive enough requests and/or funding we will definitely make this one a regular project.
